the mill was not finished, if indeed it had ever been started. Walter, who was a German of inventive disposition, built two small barges which he anchored several feet apart in the swift water, placing a small paddle wheel between them which he connected to his burrs and operated a mill until he could complete the one supposedly started by Lane, and thus 'held his trade' until his dam was finished and the larger mill in shape to run.

Before this was accomplished, however, the 'boat-mill' turned out to not be so satisfactory, so he fell back on the old horse-operated one, the power being furnished by the owner of the corn, who rode the horse to mill, used him to grind the grain while there, and then rode him home again. Walter operated the different types of mills on the site until 1834 when he sold out to Daniel Boone Wherry, who, in conjunction with Reuben Terrill, ran it until Wherry's death in 1850. Terrill and his family and members of the Kinsey family operated it until 1866, when the property passed into the hands of William Bray. With the exception of a few years it has been in the ownership of the Bray family ever since, being now owned by Seth Bray, a grandson of William.

Very little of Peter Walter's history is recorded. In 1833, shortly before selling the mill site to Wherry, he entered land farther down the river, now a part of the J. D. Rogers farm, where it is thought he lived the remainder of his life. He was the father of John Walter who married a daughter of John Steen, an early settler after whom Steen's Prairie is named, and who lived almost his entire life along the Dry Fork of the Bourbeuse Creek. He left two daughters, Margaret, wife of John Arendall, and Sarah, wife of M. R. Matthews.

Daniel Boone Wherry, who purchased the mill from Walter, was a native of St. Louis County, tradition naming him as a son of Dr. Mackay Wherry, who lived in St. Louis and St. Charles counties prior to 1800. If this is correct, his mother was a daughter of Reverend Ichabod Camp, the first Episcopal minister west of the Mississippi River, and a native of Pennsylvania. Reuben Terrill, Wherry's partner, was a native of Virginia and his biography is treated elsewhere in this volume.

As has been said, Walter's mill was finally a 'hoss power' affair and the only industry was grinding corn. But after its sale to Wherry and Terrill the original purpose of putting in a dam and using the water for power was carried out, and the customer's horses relieved of the burden of furnishing power for operation. The power furnished was far in excess of the demand on it, so the owners began to cast about for other uses for it. Having added a store soon after they acquired the mill, a powder mill and distillery soon followed. They were extensive fur buyers, and a thriving trade soon built up. The above industries supplied about all that the settlers needed except for the very occasional services of a physician. These, too, were generally to be had. Dr. David Waldo had entered land a short distance down the river from the settlement and spent much of his time at the mill since it was the central trading point for the country for many miles around in all directions. Even before Walter sold to Wherry the business had been given an added impetus by the entry of Samuel Massey and Thomas James of the land between the mill and the Gasconade River, on the banks of which they established their Bloom Landing where the manufactured products of their Meramec Iron Works were hauled overland and there shipped by water as far as New Orleans. Much of Wherry and Terrill's furs—and some of their whiskey—went down the river in these same boats, part of the furs going direct to buyers in Paris.

After the death of Reuben Terrill in the late fifties the property was operated by his son, Hamilton Terrill, until about 1866. Then it passed into the hands of the Kinsey and Bray families, the Kinseys shortly after selling their interest to Bray. It has been in the hands of the Bray family ever since, although no long-Prewett's Store stood on the land known as the Ball West place, on the old Dixon and Vienna road. Franklin's Store was on the Wittkopp place adjoining. Both stores were removed to Dixon after the railroad reached that point in the early seventies.

The house on the Walker place, now owned by Dr. O. H. Jones, just across the road from the Walker Schoolhouse on Lanes Prairie was built for the only hotel in the county shortly after the Old Springfield Road was opened. It was a main primary road for movers and drovers to and from St. Louis and beyond, and to Springfield and the Indian Territory in the southwest. At that time St. Louis did not afford a large enough market for much of the stock trailed over this route, and it was customary to leave the road below Union, cross the Missouri at St. Charles and the Mississippi at Portage des Sioux or Alton, and sell them on the larger market at Jacksonville, Illinois, where the demand was always large enough to take care of all their offerings. This house was the only one regularly operated as a hotel in the county, the next day's travel either way taking a journeyman just over the line into either Gasconade or Pulaski County. It was conducted for many years after its erection by Mrs. Belinda Walker.

In addition to the mills above mentioned, many other small mills were operated as neighborhood conveniences in several parts of the county. Robert Winston had one on Fly Creek, where the farm-to-market road crosses. Farmer Doyel had a mill on Mill Creek at the Hodge crossing in an early day, and later had a small one at the last creek crossing on the road from Vienna to Indian Ford. Another mill, owned by William (Pee Wee) Vaughan, was at the Steinman place on the lower Maries.

The exact location of Johnson's Store, owned and for many years operated by T. J. (Jeff) Johnson, is not known, but it stood in the general vicinity of Old Grove Dale, which bore the earlier name of Pea Vine. Jeff Johnson owned so much land in that area that the location of the building site is difficult at this time, but it is thought to have been on the west side of the Pea Vine Creek and slightly south of the Old Springfield Road. It is second only to Pay Down in age, because business was conducted there when the Terrill family came to this county in the middle thirties. Jeff Johnson's nephew, G. W. Jones, operated the stand after the death of Mr. Johnson, removing the stock from that point to his new location in Lindell when he bought his father's home place after the Judge's death. George Terrill, brother of the first Reuben, also conducted a store to the south of the Springfield Road for a number of years after coming here, the site being on the home place of the present John R. Terrill, adjoining the Gasconade County line. Spanish Prairie, the Hawkins Store, is treated in the chapter on the Hawkins family. Bilbie's Mill on the old Castle Rock road near Barnett's Station was another well known trading point, the machinery for which was boated up the Osage to Castle Rock or above, and from there hauled overland by ox teams.

The early settlers in the southwestern part of the county were largely supplied by stores outside of our boundaries. Coppedge's Mill on Little Piney, in the Newburg territory, Wheeler's Mill on the Gasconade south of Hancock, and one at the later site of Bray's Mill near Iberia in Miller County all operated stores in connection and much of our early day trading was done at these points.

The Meramec Iron Works played an important part in the development of Maries County. They were located at Meramec Springs in the extreme east edge of Phelps County, barely over the line from Crawford County, and for many years exercised a great influence over the eastern half of Maries County. The springs were likely known to trappers and fur traders in the territory long

King

Justices of the Peace residing in Maries County, elected or appointed by the counties from which Maries County is taken, shall continue in office; fixed Thomas Anderson's residence as the place for holding the various Courts until the permanent seat of justice is established; and closes by attaching the newly formed county to Osage County for representation purposes. At that time representation in the legislature was based on population, and the General Assembly evidently estimated that the population of the new county did not yet entitle it to a representative of its own. The next legislature, in 1857, was convinced of the error, however, and provided for separate representation for Maries County.

In pursuance of the enabling act the governor appointed V. H. Latham Presiding Judge and A. E. Rowden and Elijah Jones Associate Justices of the County Court, and William Simpson, Sheriff. The County Court appointed W. A. Rowden County Clerk, Edward Moss, Treasurer, John Ayres, Assessor, and Reuben Terrill, Surveyor. W. A. Rowden was also appointed Circuit Clerk and Recorder, the above named persons constituting the new county's first list of officers.

Reuben Terrill's first duty after taking office was that of surveying the seventy acres donated by William Shockley into town lots, which were sold at public auction at different dates shortly after the survey was complated. The proceeds of these sales, together with a 'loan' which the county made to itself of its share of the road and internal improvement funds in its hands, were used to build the first courthouse at the new county seat. This first permanent Seat of Justice was named Vienna for some reason apparently good to the people who conferred the name, but its derivation and the reason for its selection are not known.

The first term of the Circuit Court for the new county was held at the home of Thomas Anderson, now and for many years owned and occupied by Henry Schwartze Senior, as provided in the Enabling Act, on the first Monday in May, 1855, Judge G. W. Miller of Cole County, presiding. The first term of the County Court of the new county was held at the same place on the third Monday of the same month, but after the law had thus been complied with the next several meetings of both courts were held on the farm of Roysdon Roberson--afterwards known as the Jesse Crismon farm and now owned by Mrs. Bertha Behm and her children--something over a mile southwest of Vienna. Here both courts met for a year.

By this time Vienna was beginning to take on the appearance of a town, and a building about twenty feet square, standing on the site of the present Masonic Hall, was used until October, 1856, when the first courthouse was completed and occupied. This building was of brick, forty by forty-four feet is size, and two stories high; it stood at the extreme east edge of the present courthouse square, adjoining the street, and a part of the old foundation can still by traced. It was completely destroyed by fire of incendiary origin the night of November 6, 1868, together with all the court records and most of the deed records, only three volumes of the latter being saved.

In spite of the fact that the act organizing the county provided that the permanent seat of Justice should be established and maintained within three miles of the center of the county, the loss of all the county property at Vienna by the fire brought on an immediate movement to remove the county seat to the east side of the Gasconade River. The site selected by the advocates of removal was that for many years occupied by Bowles Chapel, at the junction of the old High Gate-Vienna and St. James-Chamois roads, then the most central point in the eastern part of the county. A petition to vote on the removal was presented to the County Court in 1869, but the matter never came to a vote. Neither is there a record of any action on the petition, so it is likely the ed puncheons, and wide planks fastened to the wall for writing desks, may be called furniture.' Aside from the fact that the Farmer Schoolhouse had no writing desk, no chimney, and that a log had been left out of one side on the building to admit light, the above description is a fairly accurate one. The absence of a chimney necessitated holding school during the months when no chimney was necessary.

One term attended by John H. Bodendick who is still living at Vienna was taught by a man named Fraker, whose given name is unknown, and another by one named Duncan. Fraker relinquished teaching at the beginning of the Civil War and was appointed to command one of the union companies organized at this time. The first engagement participated in by them caused some nervousness on the part of some of the privates, who ducked and dodged as the bullets whined over their heads. Fraker reproached them bitterly. "Don't be a set of damned cowards, but stand up like men," he exhorted. Just then a zinging ball barely missed his own ear and he shouted, "Or else don't stand up at all!" as he dived for shelter.

Another school of about the same age and standing was built on the farm of Solomon Copeland, now owned by Henry Stratman down the Maries below the Farmer School. One of the first terms in it was taught by William (Red Head) Branson, for many years connected officially with Maries County affairs. Of the schools on the east side of the river the one at the William Kinsey place at High Gate and one on Lanes Prairie southeast of old Lindell were among the oldest and most regularly conducted. Reuben Terrill taught at both places among others.

The recollections of Professor J. B. Hayes, yet living (1939) at St. James at an advanced age, is that the first school he attended in this county, after attending one term in Tennessee, was about 1854. The school then known as the Bailey or Hayes District, was somewhere in the neighborhood of the present Lacy Schoolhouse. The school facilities were almost perfectly described in the quotation from Carr's history. There were no blackboards, slates, globes, or any other equipment now deemed necessary, and very few books. Spelling, reading, writing, and arithmetic were the subjects taught, all in a limited way. Allen Bailey taught this first school he attended, later terms by men named Shelton, who also doubled as a preacher, Thompson, and Edelman, among others. None of them except Bailey had any but casual connection with this county's affairs and drifted to other places after a term or two.

During at least a part of this prewar period a school was held in the Barnwell District, now the Star, southeast of the Bailey School. Some terms there were taught by James Noll, who afterwards married a Southard and moved to Nebraska. William Mortimer Lee, born in Louisville, Kentucky, October 24, 1824, was married when he came here and began teaching in early manhood, a calling he followed something like fifty years before his retirement. He served also as one of the early day school commissioners. He died in Texas January 6, 1917. Of the three children born of his marriage a son died in early manhood and one daughter, Dollie, married a man named Hayden and, with her father after the death of her mother, moved to Texas and died there many years ago. She is survived by a son and daughter, both in that state. The remaining daughter, Amanda Lee, first married John Dodds and was the mother of two daughters; Alice Jones, a widow, and Grace, wife of Hosea Crismon, both of this county. Three children, Lucy, wife of John Sudheimer, Elmer, and Edgar Blanton, survive her second marriage, which was to Richard Blanton. Professor Lee's wife was a Montgomery, thought to have been related to the family of that name on the Phelps-Maries County line.

Under the allotment of twenty-five per cent of the general revenue for their support Maries County schools became public and free in reality, and both their number and attendance grew rapidly. Solomon Kimzey became the first School Commissioner in 1858, and by the time the Civil War began the county was divided into about twenty-five districts, in each of which a term of school was fairly regularly maintained every year. The war, with its attendant disturbances, gave the schools a severe setback and for a number of years during and immediately after the war hardly half of the districts maintained schools.

About 1868, however, the effects of the conflict began to disappear, and during the term of office of Dr. A. L. McGregor as Commissioner the schools recovered until in number and attendance they at least equalled that of the prewar period. R. W. Mahaney and Jacob A. Love succeeded Dr. McGregor as Commissioner in 1870 and 1872, respectively. In 1873, during the administration of Judge Love, the first enumeration list of which we have a record was filed; it showed 2,598 children of school age in the county. In 1877 there were 2,656 white and nine colored children, thirty-nine school districts, and nineteen employed teachers, who were paid an average monthly salary of $30.73 (owing to the short terms several teachers probably taught in two districts in the same year).

In 1886 the salary had risen to $35.18; 2,187 pupils were enrolled out of an enumeration of 2,945 white and two colored children, and the average daily attendance was 1,436. Forty-four teachers were employed and there were likely that many districts. School property in the county was valued at $12,874.00.

The period from 1868 to 1886 may be termed the patriarchal epoch of Maries County schools, for the teachers in that interval meant to be, and generally were, the absolute masters of their pupils both in school and out. Indeed, an infraction of the teacher's idea of propriety outside of school hours often brought heavier punishment than an offense committed in school.

King

Reuben Terrill continued to teach in the eastern part of the county during this time, and Judge Jacob A. Love, R. N. Mahaney, Micaiah Williams, William Branson, J. B. Hayes, Robert A. King, D. N. Gardner, and others, were recognized as successful educators. The list also includes James O. Ferguson, who removed from Illinois to this county about the time of its organization, and for almost forty years had close connection with educational matters in the west end of Maries and the east end of Miller counties. His second wife was a sister of William Massey, whose father was among the first settlers on the Little Maries. Henry Warren was also a prominent teacher in the west end of the county during the same period, serving as School Commissioner as early as 1864, and later as Representative in the General Assembly.

It was during this period, also in 1872, that Vienna acquired ownership of its first school property, the lot in the north end of town where for forty-five years ninety-nine per cent of the youngsters of the district received the only education they ever acquired. A term or two of school had been held inside the city limits of the town prior to that time, but the early citizens sent their children to the Farmer School, two or three miles west of town, for such schooling as they received.

Both during and preceding this time a school maintained in Phelps County, just over the line in York's Leg, attracted many children from Maries County. The teacher was Professor Krewson, also known as Captain. The Captain had been a seaman for many years, his family settling in Philadelphia. But he grew tired of the sea and moved his family to what is now Phelps County where he taught most of the rest of his life. Textbooks being scarce and not altogether to his liking, the Captain wrote most of the textbooks from which he taught, some of dren, George at Rolla, Laura, wife of Charles Glenn, and May, wife of Alex Glenn, of this county. A fourth child died in infancy.

John Calvin Robison, the remaining child, married Mildred J. Barnwell, widow of Anderson, daughter of David Hart. Lee, only survivor of the six born to the marriage, lives on the home place on the Bourbeuse in this county. John and William Robison died single; Eliza, wife of David Dastleman, is also dead, survived by one daughter, Oma, wife of Raymond Patsel of DeLong, Indiana; Mollie, wife of Leff Dillon, left six children: Loyd, Eliza, Lola, Nellie, Stella, and Anna, all of whom are married and live in St. Louis; Permelia, the remaining child, married Tom Chambers and left one daughter, Luanna, who married Otis Moreland and is also dead leaving three daughters, Lucille, Jean, and Pauline, all of whom live in St. Louis.

The Hart family in this county is descended from Adam Hart, who came here in his old days from Knox County, Tennessee, where his wife, whose maiden name was Lineberry, died. He spent the remainder of his life, died, and is buried in this county. His burial place is not certainly known, but is believed to be Rock Springs. He was the father of eight sons, all of whom came to this county. But two of the, Absalom and George, soon afterwards moved to Perry County where they spent the remainder of their lives and nothing is known of their descendants by relatives here. The six sons who continued to live in this county were: Louis, Joseph, Dennis, Lovick, Anderson, and David Hart. Their age-order is not known, and very few details of the family have been preserved. If there were daughters, no record of them now remains even in family lore.

Louis Hart married and his wife died in Tennessee before they came to Missouri. He was the father of two children by this marriage, Dialtha and LeRoy. The former married Pleasant Hathaway and moved from this part of the state a great many years ago, probably to Henry County. Both she and her husband are long since dead. The son, LeRoy, entered Johnson's command in the Confederate Army, was wounded at Lois (then Bloomington) and remained at his sister's home until his recovery was completed. During or soon after the close of the war he went to Illinois, since which time he has not maintained any connection with relatives here. Dialtha's children, if any, are not known to them either. Louis Hart's second wife was Elizabeth, daughter of John James, by whom he was the father of seven children: Samantha Ellen, Thomas, Barbara, Mary, John, Louisa, and Paralee Hart. Samantha Ellen first married Stephen Shinkle and was the mother of three children, all yet living: Frank of St. James, and Mrs. Mattie Long and Mrs. Elizabeth Gosney, both of Kansas City. She was the mother of four children by her later marriage to Robert A. Cowan, all also living: Robert E., ex-judge of the Maries County Court, on the Bourbeuse in this county, Walter at St. James, Effie, wife of Charles Smith in Texas, and Etta, wife of Walter Morelock in St. Louis. Thomas Hart married Elizabeth Starks and both have been dead many years, her death occurring January 4, 1935; the two children born of this marriage, both yet living in this county, are Mollie, wife of Charles Monhenke, and Emmett Hart. Barbara Hart married Thomas A. Miles, and died childless. The six children born to Mary Hart by her marriage to William Bullock, were: Louis, Robert, Thomas, Elizabeth, Ida, and Lucy Bullock, of whom Elizabeth died single; Robert married Mrs. May Seddon, nee Wools, and is also dead leaving three children, Everett, Emmett, and Myrl; Ida married Lee Reed of this county, and Lucy married a Gibson and at last account lived at Hooker; Louis lives in this county and Thomas at St. James. John Hart married Elizabeth James and both are deceased; their four children, all living in this county, are Everett, May, wife of Reuben Terrill, Loyd, and Clarence Hart. Louisa Hart married Sterling Mosher and her descendants are given in this chapter under that name. Paralee Hart, now widow of Jerry Gies-

No attempt has been made to trace the descendants of the Crawford County branch of the Pinnell family in this sketch. Peter, Hiram, and Wesley Pinnell seem to have been the ancestors of that branch. They may have been brothers of Asa, but this is not certainly known. Asa and his wife were the parents of three sons, Lunsford Lane, Augustus, and William Lewis Lunsford Lane Pinnell, the oldest son, born March 23, 1813, may have been born in Kentucky. He died August 9, 1865. There is considerable difference of opinion, even in the family, as to his marital status, one branch contending that he never married. The majority opinion, however, is that he did marry, and had one son, William, and that this William married Keturah, daughter of Reuben Terrill, that they moved to and lived some time in Washington County, and finally moved to St. Louis, where both died. They were the parents of two children, John and Lucy. Lucy married John L. Sullivan and died in St. Louis, as did her husband. John also married and is now dead. Both left descendants whose names, addresses, and married status are not known, except that they mostly lived in St. Louis.

Augustus Pinnell, the second son, was born in the present limits of this county June 3, 1818, and died here February 21, 1900. He married Millie Shepherd, who was born in 1817 and died February 12, 1903. They were the parents of three daughters, Elizabeth, Cynthia E., and Ella E. Pinnell. Of these, Cynthia E., the youngest, who was born May 8, 1848, and died November 22, 1930, married John E. Love; her descendants are listed under that name.

Elizabeth Pinnell, the oldest daughter, was born September 1, 1839, and died March 17, 1917. She married Robert W., son of Philip Fritts, who was born July 11, 1835, and died March 20, 1917, Robert W. Fritts was one of the early day school teachers of the county. This family spent their entire married life on the farm on the east side of Lanes Prairie, during which time he taught something like thirty terms of school in a radius of several miles of his home. They were the parents of five children living to maturity, and so far as information is at hand, yet living. They are: W. R., Theodore E., Augusta, wife of W. Y. Morelock, Dora, wife of F. M. Carrington, and Emma, wife of James Moman.

Ella E. Pinnell, the second daughter, was born August 30, 1843, and died May 4, 1900. She married Marion F. Fritts, brother of Robert, and for several years they lived on a farm on the east side of Lanes Prairie near the present Hickory Grove Christian Church. Moving to Vichy shortly after the town was founded he embarked in the mercantile business, a pursuit he followed either alone or in partnership with his brother-in-law, John E. Love, for more than twenty years. Upon the death of Mrs. Fritts he closed out his business and moved, first to Belle and then to Kansas, where he died. His second wife was Mrs. Kate M. Bibb of Montgomery County. No children were born of the second marriage. The two sons of the first marriage are yet living: Oscar, the older lives in Kenrick, Colorado; the other, Dr. Otto C. Fritts, at Osage City, Kansas.

William Lewis Pinnell, the third and last son of Asa, was born in present Maries County January 27, 1824, and died here July 17, 1887. He was married in this county August 13, 1844, to Mary, daughter of Disbury Johnson, who was born November 17, 1827. This Disbury Johnson was not related to the families of James and Thomas Johnson; he was born in Ohio on November 1, 1799, and came to this state in 1821, but it is not recorded as to whether or not he came directly to Maries County. He was a cousin of the redoubtable John and Henry Johnson (sons of his uncle, Griffin Johnson) who were captured by the Indians in Northwest Territory, and killed their captors, one of whom was a chief, and made their way back home.

CHAPTER SEVENTY-THREE

TERRILL FAMILY

Such records as have been accessible show that Hanover County, Virginia, was likely the original home of the Terrill family. The home site lies in and south of the forks of the Pamunkey River, well down toward the coastal plain, and they likely settled there soon after coming from Europe. By 1786 some of them still lived there, but the name had spread to several counties in that state some distance west of Hanover County. The one member of the Virginia family in which we are most interested is Reuben Terrill Senior, who was born in Virginia December 7, 1784, and died there October 27, 1829. On September 11, 1805, he married Susannah Morton, who was also born in Virginia, on May 20, 1786. Later she married James Ferrell and died in Maries County, Missouri, on January 28 1854. She, with her children Reuben Junior, William, George, Keturah, and Jackson, had much to do with Maries County affairs, and with the affairs of Osage County before Maries was organized.

William Terrill came here in the middle eighteen thirties. He was born in Virginia January 21, 1812, and soon after coming here was married to Virginia Sorrell (sister of Ed, of Nathan Burchard's wife, and others) on October 15, 1839. Almost at once they moved to the state of Texas, where he and his wife spent the balance of their lives. He is the founder of one of the Texas branches of the Terrill family.

George Terrill, born December 14, 1816, came here as a young man with his brothers, and for a time operated a store on the present John R. Terrill place in the extreme east end of the county and just south of the old Springfield road. He died single in early life.

Keturah Terrill, sister of the above two and Reuben, was born May 4, 1808, and married October 29, 1832, to William Quisenberry, either in Virginia or in St. Louis County, but likely in Virginia. They came here with the other Terrills and owned and lived on land near the mouth of the Pea Vine until her death October 16, 1843. She is buried in the old Grove Dale Cemetery, and her headstone, hand-made, is of diaspore. She left two children, Susan and Reuben, who were taken and cared for by their grandmother, Susannah Ferrell.

Reuben Terrill, son and grandson of Reuben Terrill, is the member of the family who made the deepest impression in our early-day history. He was born in Virgina August 12, 1806, and married there August 11, 1825, to his cousin of some degree, Lucretia Lacy, who was born there September 4, 1806. They came to St. Louis County, Missouri, immediately after their marriage and lived in the Creve Couer Lake section for some years. Reuben Terrill was an expert surveyor in addition to being a farmer, and either opportunity for that type of employment or dissatisfaction with his location led him to Maries County shortly before the middle thirties, and here he made his home until his death June 6, 1856. His widow survived until October 1, 1877. He was a large landowner, mostly of the better land along the Dry Fork and Pea Vine Creeks. He did much of the early-day surveying in the county, as well as serving as Judge of the County Court of Osage County long before Maries County was organized. The seven children born to Reuben and Lucretia Terrill, all born in Missouri, were: Reuben, Hamilton, John, Jackson, Keturah, Nancy, and Betsey Terrill.

Reuben Terrill, born in St. Louis County November 15, 1830, was married to Frances Lacy, his cousin, who came here with her father from Virginia on a visit and stayed here the balance of her life. He had his father's bent for surveying, and most of the work of that type done after Maries County was organized, including laying out the townsite of Vienna, was done by him. His home in the very east end of the county was a part of the land his father had bought, and it is still in the family. His wife died on the place August 22, 1920, and he followed her to the grave some years later. They were the parents of ten children, of whom Keturah married William B. Pinnell and her descendants, will be found under that name. Eliza C. Terrill, born April 30, 1858, married Henry M. Scantlin April 7, 1878, and died April 20, 1937; she was the mother of five children: Tandy of Owensville; Mrs. Chris. Jessen of St. Louis; Bessie, wife of Henry Drewel of this county, and Gertha, wife of Judge Joe Tynes of near Belle; Minnie, the remaining daughter, married Manuel Shockley, and died October 14, 1931; her descendants will be found under her married name.

James O. Terrill, son of Reuben, is also dead; his wife was Telitha E. Creekpaum. He is survived by his three children: Dr. Carlos Terrill of Summersville, Texas County, W. B. Terrill of Oklahoma, and Effie, now Mrs.

Gronholt, of St. James.

Reuben and Frances (Lacy) Terrill's living children: Mary, now Mrs. Price, of Nebraska; John R., William, and George, of the Grove Dale vicinity; Charles M. in California; Robert W. and Millard in Oklahoma. Charles M. Terrill is a widower, his wife, Dena Rebecca, nee Shockley, daughter of Francis Ausberry Shockley, having died July 9, 1935; she was born August 6, 1866, and they were married September 24, 1885. The seven living children born of this marriage are: Mrs. Gladys Homfeldt of Bland; Mrs. June Spurgeon, also of Bland; Mrs. Myrtle Feller of Eldon, Mrs. Grace Sweet, Mrs. Stella Custer, and Mrs. Pearl Bapp of San Mateo, California; Albert of Oxford, Kansas, and Homer at Yarna Station, near Belle: Both of the boys have been with the Shell Pipe Line Company for years, and occupy responsible positions. Ethel, widow of Thomas Ammerman, later Mrs. Bapp, is dead, childless.

Hamilton Terrill, son of Reuben Senior, married his cousin Martha, daughter of James Terrill of Virginia, after coming to this county. In addition to being a large landowner, he owned and operated the old Pay Down Mill for a number of years. Finally disposing of his interests in this county, he moved to Shannon County where both he and his wife died. So far as is known his family consisted of four children: Charles, Frances, Mary, and Ellen. Charles married Telitha Lemons; they moved to Colorado many years ago and both are now dead; they left children, but their names and addresses are not known.

Frances married William Smith; they lived in this county a number of years, and all the children by her first marriage were probably born here. They later moved to Oklahoma where her first husband died and she later married a man named Collins, thought to be halfbrother of her first husband. The six children of her first marriage are: L. O. Smith who married Minnie, daughter of Jasper Love, and now lives in Springfield, Missouri; James H. Smith who married Rachel M., daughter of Ausberry Shockley, and lives in Gasconade County; Amos Smith who married Rachel's sister, Lucy J. Shockley, and also lives in Gasconade County; Albert, Ella, and Grover Smith, the three remaining children of Frances Smith, married after they moved to Oklahoma, and their descendants are not known. The two daughters born of the last marriage also married there.

Mary married Thomas Barton Shockley, and her descendants are entered under that name. Ellen, the fourth child, married James Campbell; if living, she is in Shannon County where the family moved many years ago.

We do not have much detailed information concerning John Terrill, third son of Reuben Senior. His first wife was Bettie Stockton, and no children were born of the union. His second wife was Caroline, daughter of Mack Pankey of Dent County, and the family lived in that county from the second marriage until the death of both parents some years ago. At least eight children were born of this marriage, as follows: Albert, Elias, Lucy, Jackson, Lee, Green, Laura, and Thomas. There may have been more. All are thought to be still living in Dent, Shannon, and Texas counties.

Jackson Terrill, youngest son of Reuben Senior, was born June 23, 1841, and died December 14, 1899. He served his time in the Confederate Army in the Civil War, and shortly after its close was married to Eliza C., daughter of Elias Moreland, who was born December 15, 1850, and died December 16, 1932. They spent their entire married lives in this county, mostly along the Dry Fork, during which time Jackson Terrill served several terms as Judge of the County Court. Like all the other Terrills, he was an expert surveyer, but did not do as much of this work as did his brother Reuben. After his death his widow moved to Belle and lived there until her death.

Of the thirteen children born to them, four are still living. They are: John W. Terrill who has served as Prosecuting Attorney, Representative, and Probate Judge, lives at Belle where he practices law; Lucy, wife of John R. Crider, lives near Vienna; DeWitt C. and Edward live at Belle. The four other children who lived to maturity were: Dr. S. J. (Sam) Terrill, who was born February 15, 1877, and died September 13, 1912. He started medical practice probably at Brinktown after his marriage to Mattie Matthews. Later he practiced for some years at Meta, where he married Mertie Orr. His two children by his first wife, Paul and James, live in Oklahoma and Texas, respectively; Windorf, by his second wife, lives in St. Louis, as does his widow, now Mrs. Silberman.

Dr. A. J. (Jack) Terrill, was born September 26, 1879, and died June 4, 1921; his first wife was Elsie, daughter of Hubbard Atkins, to whom he was married shortly before beginning his medical practice at Vera, Oklahoma, where his wife died February 2, 1909, less than a year after their marriage. The name of his second wife has not been learned. His third wife, who survived him but is now dead, was Nellie Evans of Kansas City, Kansas. They were the parents of one child, Lorraine Terrill, who is now married and lives near Kansas City, but her married name is not known.

Carlos I. Terrill, born in 1883, died November 15, 1920, single. Eliza C. Terrill, the youngest child to live to maturity, born June 8, 1887, married Charles, son of John Shep Ridenhour, and died August 31, 1911; none of their children survive.

Nancy, daughter of Reuben Terrill Senior, was born October 10, 1833, and died September 11, 1864. She was

C. Smith who married Kittie, daughter of Harper Love, and now lives in Springfield, Missouri; James W. Smith who married Rachel M., daughter of Andrew Shockley, and lives in Gasconade County; Amos Smith who married Rachel's sister, Lucy J. Shockley, and also lives in Gasconade County; Albert, Etta, and Grover Smith, the three remaining children of Frances Smith, unmarried when they moved to Oklahoma, and their descendants are not known. The two daughters born of the last marriage also married there.

Mary married Thomas Benton Shockley, and her descendants are entered under that name. Ellen, the fourth child, married James Campbell; if living, she is in Shannon County where the family moved many years ago.

We do not have much detailed information concerning John Terrill, third son of Reuben Senior. His first wife was Hettie Goodman, and no children were born of the union. His second wife was Caroline, daughter of Mark Pankey of Dent County, and the family lived in that county from the second marriage until the death of both parents some years ago. At least eight children were born of this marriage, as follows: Albert, Elias, Lucy, Jackson Lee, Orvin, Laura, and Thomas. There may have been more. All are thought to be still living in Dent, Shannon, and Texas counties.

Jackson Terrill, youngest son of Reuben Senior, was born June 28, 1841, and died December 14, 1893. His two children by his first wife, Paul and James, live in Oklahoma and Texas, respectively; Winfred, by his second wife, lives in St. Louis, as does his widow, now Mrs. Silverman.

Dr. A. L. (Jack) Terrill, was born September 22, 1879, and died June 4, 1931; his first wife was Elsie, daughter of Hubbard Mills, to whom he was married shortly before beginning his medical practice at Vera, Oklahoma, where his wife died February 5, 1909, less than a year after their marriage. The name of his second wife has not been learned. His third wife, who survived him but is now dead, was Nellie Evans of Kansas City, Kansas. Carlos L. Terrill, born in 1883, died November 16, 1910, single. Eliza C. Terrill, the youngest child to live to maturity, born June 2, 1887, married Charles, son of John Skaggs Hildebrand, and died August 31, 1921; none of their children survive.

Nancy, daughter of Reuben Terrill Senior, was born October 19, 1838, and died November 11, 1884. She was the seco[illegible] wife of Morris K. Campbell, and the descendants of her two children, Jack and Lee, will be found under that name.

Betsy, the remaining child of Reuben Terrill Senior, married Benjamin F. Given, and they lived on Pea Vine all their married lives. Both are long since dead. They were the parents of six children of whom two are still living: Louis lives in St. Louis, and Castilious, in Alpine, Texas. Benjamin and Clarissa both died at the home place in recent years, single. Arthur married a daughter of Sam Branson and moved to Shannon County many years ago; he is probably dead, but no record of his family has been received. Monroe, the sixth child, married Era Goforth, and their descendants are included in the chapter on Early Physicians.

Our Terrill family is in some way related to the Parsons family, long prominent in Cole County affairs. This relationship is thought to have been on the Terrill side, Mrs. Parsons probably being a sister of the first Reuben Terrill to come here.

CHAPTER SEVENTY-FOUR

TYREE FAMILY

No less than thirteen families of Tyrees appear in the Virginia census of 1786. All, or nearly all, of them lived in Hanover, New Kent, and Prince Edward counties between the Pamunky and James rivers and well down toward the coast. None of that name are found in the 1790 census in North and South Carolina, so it is likely that all the Tyrees descended from one head who came to Virginia in a very early day, not less than two hundred years ago. There are a number of that name still in Osage County, Missouri, who must have descended from others than the two brothers whose descendants lived here, but we do not know their names or relationships. Nor is the date of their coming to Osage County known. They did not settle in Maries County until about 1842, and this sketch of them is given for the reason that all of their descendants married into families who have lived here much longer.

Reubin Terrill I (1784-1829) of Virginia was the father of Reubin II, William Jackson, George and Keturah who came to Maries County in the 1830s after being in St. Louis awhile. Reubin III (1830-1910) and Frances Lacy (1835-1920) were married in 1854. Reubin was a self educated man, taught school, a surveyor and a county surveyor for sixteen years. Alot of notes and equipment is still owned by his family. FLOYD WAYNE "BROWNIE" TERRY FAMILY

Floyd Wayne "Brownie" Terry was born and reared in Maries County near Vienna, Missouri, on January 8, 1915. He is the third of eight children of Floyd and Leona Tackett Terry.

The nickname of "Brownie" was given to him by a neighbor when he was a small boy. It seems that he buttomed his coat with one long and one short side. The neighbor remarked, "Well look, Old Brown has his coat buttoned wrong." Old Brown was an old man who lived in the neighborhood who always buttoned his coat with one long side. The family started calling him Brown and later it was lengthened to "Brownie." This nickname has stayed with him ever since. Many people think that Brownie Terry is his name.

Opal Genevieve Opperman was born on January 3, 1920, in Maries County near Vienna, Missouri, about a mile from where Wayne "Brownie" lived. She is the oldest of four children born to Frank and Margaret Felkerson Opperman.

Genevieve and Floyd Wayne (Brownie) Terry.

Wayne and Genevieve were married May 18, 1940, by the late Rev. Horace G. Miller in his home. They have lived the 50 years of their married life in Vienna.

Wayne and Genevieve are the parents of three daughters. Joyce married Edwin Honse and lives in Vienna; they have three children. Vickie married Leslie Tackett and lives near Vienna; they have one daughter. Phyllis married Richard Christensen of Missoula, Montana; they live in Missoula and have two children.

In 1940 Wayne worked at Fort Leonard Wood during its early construction. In 1941 he began working as a mechanic for the late Clinton McKeever at the service station that is now known as the Plaza Service Center. He worked there until 1942 when he purchased what was then known as the Sinclair Service Station. The building is no longer there, but it was located on the corner of First Street and Highway 63.

Later he, along with his cousin, the late Loyal Buddy Henderson, began a new business uptown located at the corner of 3rd and Main Street. Along with operating a garage and service station they sold new Desoto and Plymouth cars and John Deere farm machinery. In time Buddy sold his partnership and Wayne's brother Willard became his partner. In early 1953 they sold the business to Vernon Long.

During this time Brownie was elected to two terms as Judge of the Western District, an office now known as county commissioner.

In August of 1953 he began working in Jefferson City at the National Guard taking care of security items, a position he held for

The Jim Eads Store was located on the east side of the courthouse square in Vienna. It was later owned by Irvin Tackett and Leslie Terry. We don't know what the occasion was but three of the men are holding photographs and two of them are wearing medals. From the left are Logan McDaniel, Eli Finn (one of the best fishermen on the Gasconade), Wilfred Terrill, Jim Eads (owner), "Pug" Terrill, and Jesse Snodgrass.

Fred,
As I referring to was Ida M.Hamilton Moreland. She married William Washington Moreland and they had four children. This is all the information I have on my husband family. There was three daughters and one son name Benjamin and he died at a young age. I'll get more details for you I have to contact a few members of my husband cousins for details. As far as his grandmother here it goes. Willie M. Moreland b:March 29,1905,Weathford,Tx. d: 1987,San Antonio,Tx married around 1928 Andrews Earl Rogers 1900,in Texas. Thersa Marie B:?d? ,this is all I have right now. Willie and Andrews had one daughter Peggy Rogers Daniel and she married Thomas Daniel and they had two children. Peggy died in 1987,San Antonio,Tex. and Thomas died in 1969 in New Albany,Ind. This is it. I'll send more later.

As far as the Moreland family, as far as I can currently go back is Patrick Moreland who is reported to have died Bef. 22 Jan 1715/16. I have as of this moment no information re. where in Europe the family may have originated. Also, which Ida are you referencing. If it would be convenient for you I would love to add whatever information that you have on her descendants. Hope all is well and let me apologize for not responding sooner.

Subject: Who is Benedict Lager?

Hello one and all,

I couldn't figure out the Benedict Lager question until I had time to sit down and pull out all kinds of references to him. I discovered a note in my files that solves the puzzle (but that I had not transferred to the Lager Generations spreadsheet):

I found a note about a death record I had researched at the Minnesota History Center, St. Paul: 1905 series, microfilm roll 42, card no. 1936:

> Death occurred on March 1, 1905, in Pepin Township, Wabasha County, Minnesota
> Chief Cause: abscess of lung
> Name: Benedick Lager
> Age: 63 years, 2 months, 25 days
> Male, Married, Farmer, birthplace Germany
> Father's Name: Bernard Lager, birthplace Germany
> Mother's Name: Mary Ann Knollen, birthplace Germany

First, the names of the parents fit into the Lager Generations table and contradict Tenfelde's identification. Second, calculating backward from the age of 63 years, 2 months, and 5 days results in a birth date of December 5, 1841, which agrees with Benedict Lager's birth record on the Lager spreadsheet:

> Johann Benedict Lager, Gersten
> b. 5 Dec 1841, bap. 6 Dec 1841
> [parents:] Bernard Albert Lager & Maria Anna Knolle[n]
> BAOS 04-08/102 Geburts- und Taufregister 1830-1852, fiche 3, 289-152

The biography of Benedict Lager in The History of Wabasha County lists the birth date as March 21, 1841. The grave index at the St. Felix cemetery has Benedict Lager born on December 6, 1842. The obituary (below) in the Wabasha Herald mentions no date:

> Thursday, March 2, 1905:
> Benedict Lager died at his late residence in Pepin township at 11 o'clock Wednesday night [1 Mar 1905]. His funeral will be held from St. Felix church Saturday morning. While attending the world's fair at St. Louis last fall, Mr. Lager took a cold from which he never fully recovered. A few weeks ago, as a last hope to save his life, he was operated on and came out from under the operation in good condition. Other complications set in and he did not have the physical strength to ward them off and died, as above.
> Deceased was one of the old residents of the county. He operated one of the best farms in Pepin and was a very well off man. He leaves to mourn for him a > wife and a large family of grown up children. He held for many years the office of township supervisor. He was also a member of the school board in his district and was for many years a member of St. Joseph's Society of this city. He was a native of Germany and was a good man and a good citizen. The sympathy of the community is extended to the afflicted family.

The obituary for Benedict's wife, Caroline Helen Welp, will interest you and also point out the inaccuracy of dates remembered when someone is writing an obituary:

> Thursday, February 12, 1925:
> Pioneer Lady of Pepin Hill Dies of Heart Trouble
> Mrs. Caroline Lager, widow of the late Benedict Lager, died at the old home on Pepin Hill Saturday morning [7 Feb 1925] at 2 o'clock, death being due to an attack of heart trouble with which she had been ill for about a week.
> Deceased, whose maiden name was Caroline Helen Welp, was born in Hanover, Germany, November 6, 1850 and came to America with her parents when ten years of age, the family settling on a farm on Pepin Hill. She was married to Benedict Lager in April 1870 [St. Felix marriage register: 7 Apr 1869], and has been a resident in Pepin township ever since. She was bereft of her husband on March 4, 1904 [1 March 1905], and is now survived by the following children: Benedict and Joseph of Wabasha, Edward and Frank of St. Paul, Mrs. E. H. Wise, Lake City, Mrs. William Mars, Pepin Hill and Henry and George at home.
> She is also survived by two brothers, Joseph Welp of Pepin and Clem Welp of Plainview, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Passe of Pepin Hill.
> Mrs. Lager was one of those hard working pioneer women of the county who went through all the trials and hardships incident to the building up of the country. She was a devoted wife, a kind mother and a dutiful daughter. She was a faithful member of the St. Felix Catholic Church of this city, from where the funeral was held at 10 o'clock, Monday morning, February 9, and interment was made in St. Felix cemetery, Rev. John Bartholome officiating.

Now all of us have to correct the Lager Generations spreadsheet and place Benedict Lager in the right position. Way to go! Cooperation and sharing are sure ways to make progress.

Best wishes for a pleasant summer!

Paul

Benedict Lager

The History of Wabasha County indicates:

"Benedict Lager, in former years a well known farmer and highly respected citizen of Pepin Township, but now deceased, was born in Hanover, Germany, March 21, 1841, son of Bernard and Mary Ann Lager. He came to America with his parents, the family residing two or three years in East Dubuque. In 1859 they came to Wabasha County, Minn., settling on a farm in section 28, Pepin Township, about seven miles west of Wabasha. The land was wild, there were no roads, and Indians were numerous. Bernard Lager and his wife were hard workers and in time developed their land into one of the best farms in Pepin Township. Here they spent the rest of their lives respected and esteemed as good neighbors, and both died on the farm.

They are buried in St. Felix Cemetery at Wabasha. Benedict Lager's education was begun in Germany, in the common schools, and he also attended school for awhile after coming to this country. He resided at home until his marriage in April, 1870, to Caroline, daughter of Bernard and Helen Welp of Pepin Township. She was born in Hanover, Germany, November 16, 1850, and came to America with her parents then ten years old, the family settling on Pepin Hill, this county. Mr. and Mrs. Lager immediately after their marriage took up their residence on the farm in sections 21 and 28, Pepin Township, which he operated successfully until his death in March, 1904. He then owned 280 acres and had improved the propeerty, having built a fine brick house. He carried on extensive agricultural operations, raising both grain and stock. One of the leading citizens of his township, he served it as supervisor and assessor for a number of years,and was a member of the school board of District No. 3. Politically he was a Democrat. At his death he had accumulated a competence, leaving his family in good circumstances, and was a good husband, father and citizen. He and his family were members of St. Felix parish of the Catholic church, and he belonged also to St. Joseph's Society. He was faithful in all the obligations of life and a liberal supporter of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Lager were the parents of nine children, born as follows:

Sophia M., February 12, 1871; Benedict, August 26, 1872; Edward, April 1, 1873; Mary, March 23, 1875; Frank, September 23, 1877; Joseph, October 22, 1879; Henry, April 7, 1882; Annie, September 2, 1884, and George, October 3, 1887. Sophia M., who married Anton Kennebec of Wabasha, died on Wabasha Hill in the spring of 1910, leaving ten children, Isabelle, Lizzetta, Agnes, Clara, Frank, Josepha, Edward, Marcella, Bernice and Ruth.
Benedict, now a carpenter in Wabasha, married Anna Graden and has one child, Ervin J. Edward, who is a carpenter living in the State of

The History of Wabasha County indicates:

Benedict Leger, in former years a well known farmer and highly respected citizen of Pepin Township, but now deceased, was born in Hanover, Germany, March 21, 1841, son of Bernard and Mary Ann Leger. He came to America with his parents, the family residing two or three years in East Dubuque, Ill. In 1858 they came to Wabasha County, Minn., settling on a farm in section 20, Pepin Township, about seven miles west of Wabasha. The land was wild, there were no roads, and Indians were numerous. Bernard Leger and his wife with hard work in time developed their land into one of the best farms in Pepin Township. Here they spent the rest of their lives respected and esteemed as good neighbors, and both died on the farm.

They are buried in St. Felix Cemetery at Wabasha. Benedict Leger's education was begun in Germany, in the common schools, and he also attended school for awhile after coming to this country. He resided at home until his marriage in April, 1870, to Caroline, daughter of Bernard and Helen Weis of Pepin Township. She was born in Hanover, Germany, November 16, 1850, and came to America with her parents when ten years old, the family settling on Pepin Hill, this county. Mr. and Mrs. Leger immediately after their marriage took up their residence on the farm in sections 21 and 28, Pepin Township, which he operated successfully until his death in March, 1904. He then owned 300 acres and had improved the property, having built a fine brick house. He carried on extensive agricultural operations, raising both grain and stock. One of the leading citizens of his township, he served it as supervisor and treasurer for a number of years and was a member of the school board of district No. 3. Politically he was a Democrat. At his death he had accumulated a competence, leaving his family in good circumstances, and was a good husband, father and citizen. He and his family were members of St. Felix parish of the Catholic Church, and he belonged also to St. Joseph's Society. He was faithful in all the obligations of life and a liberal supporter of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Leger were the parents of nine children, born as follows:

Amelia M., February 12, 1871; Benedict, August 26, 1872; Edward, April 1, 1874; Mary, March 23, 1876; Clara, September 20, 1877; Joseph, October 20, 1879; Henry, April 7, 1881; Annie, September 2, 1884, and George, October 9, 1887. Amelia M., who married Anton Wenzeler of Wabasha, died on Wabasha Hill in the spring of 1910, leaving ten children, Isabelle, Elizabeth, Agnes, Clara, Frank, Joseph, Edward, Marcella, Bernice and Ruth. Benedict, now a carpenter in Wabasha, married Rose Graham and has one child, Doris J. Edward, who is a carpenter living in the State of Washington, married Catherine Dooley. Mary is now Mrs. Edward Wise, Jr. of Lake City, and has three children, Edward, Ralph and Benedict. Frank, who is a railroad bridge carpenter residing in Minneapolis, married Ida Whaley and has two children, Benedict and John. Joseph, who is now a renter on the home farm, married Myrtle Elvira Berlin of Red Wing, January 9, 1907, and has three children, Florence, Dorothy and Frances. Henry is residing on Pepin Hill. Annie is the wife of William Mars, a farmer on Pepin Hill, and has two children, Elvira and Lavina. Lager, Benedict (page 496), in former years a well known farmer and highly respected citizen of Pepin Township, but now deceased, was born in Hanover, Germany, March 21, 1841, son of Bernard and Mary Ann Lager. He came to America with his parents, the family residing two or three years in East Dubuque. In 1859 they came to Wabasha County, Minn., settling on a farm in section 28, Pepin Township, about seven miles west of Wabasha. The land was wild, there were no roads, and Indians were numerous. Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Lager

From History of Wabash County, Minnesota 'Chapter 10' – Published in 1920

The rule of all early settlement in this section of the west, and probably in all others, has been that the valleys and lower levels are taken up first, leaving the uplands to those who should follow after. Wabasha county was no exception to this general custom of the northwestern pioneers, and the valleys of the Zumbro and its tributaries were dotted with flourishing farms before it could be fairly said that any settlement for farming purposes deserving the name had been made in Pepin township. Cook's valley, in Greenfield township, Mazeppa, Bear's valley, in Chester, and Plainview, had all been settled before agricultural operations had made any headway in Pepin township. The Lager and Schmauss families are the oldest residents in the township, both coming here in 1859. Claims had been taken as early as 1857, but were not improved, and it cannot be said with strict fidelity to fact that the farming lands on the ridge were put under cultivation prior to 1859. Henry Schmauss' farm, taken by him in 1859, the N. W. 1/4 of section 30, was claimed originally by one Allen (first name not known), who laid a soldier's land warrant upon it, and of this man, Allen, Schmauss purchased, occupying the land in the season of 1859. Ben Lager, the present chairman of the board of supervisors for the township, who bought claim of F. Learey in 1859, and at that date settled on the northwest of section 28, says that in 1859 there was not, all told, more than fifty acres of ground broken on the ridge between Schmauss' and Read's Landing, which is virtually to say there was not more than that amount under cultivation in the entire township. The fact that the elevation above the lake was high, no streams affording water for stock, and the situation naturally exposed to the wind, seemed to overbalance the considerations of productiveness of soil and nearness to market, to such an extent that the lower-lying and well watered valleys of the interior of the county were settled from four to five years before Pepin was really taken for farming purposes. While this is true, however, of the uplands of the township, it is also true that the very earliest white settlement for permanent occupancy made in southern Minnesota was made within the geographical limits of Pepin township. This was the settlement made by Charles R. Read, who as early as 1847 stuck his stakes in the northeast corner of the township, opened a trading and supply depot for traffic with the natives, half-breeds and lumbermen of the Chippewa Valley, and announced his intention of staying despite all attempts to oust him from the land, which by treaty of 1830 belonged to the half-breeds and was known as the half-breed tract. The particulars of the bestowal of this tract upon their relatives of mixed blood by the M'dewakantonwan Dahkotahs, its extent and the consequent litigation when white settlers attempted to locate upon, as also the deleterious effect upon the early settlement of the county, are among the most interesting matters connected with this "history" and will be found fully treated of in another chapter.

In 1887 Father Trobec was removed to St. Paul and Father Wurst took charge of Wabasha and this place. On account of the multifarious duties incumbent on Father Wurst, things under his guidance went about the same as under Father Trobec's regime. Services were kept about twice a month, on a week day and on a Sunday, as Wabasha had off and on an assistant. We may honorably mention the Fathers Geran, Jacob, Hechenberger, O'Connel, Lager and Holper. About 1890 the sanctuary was built to the church and the whole church was back-plastered at an expense of about $480.

From History of Wabash County, Minnesota 'Chapter 21' – Published in 1920

The first claims outside of Read's Landing were taken in the middle fifties, but the first permanent settlers outside the village did not come until 1859. They were Henry Schmauss and Ben Lager. Henry Schmauss settled on the northwest quarter of section 30, buying out the original claimant. Ben Lager settled on the northwest quarter of section 238, Also buying out the original claimant. In after years he said that in 1859 there were not more than fifty acres of ground broken on the ridge between Schmauss' and Read's Landing, which is virtually to say there was not more than that amount under cultivation in the entire township. The fact that the elevation above the lake was high, no streams affording water for stock, and the situation naturally exposed to the wind, seemed to overbalance the considerations of productiveness of soil and nearness to market, to such an extent that the lower-lying and well watered valleys of the interior of the county were settled from four to five years before Pepin was really taken for farming purposes.

Dear Fred;
Thank you for your message regarding the Lager family. I don't have alot of info on the Lager's as my husband's line is the Welling's - Benhard married Euphemia Welling. I have copied some of the info below. I have been in contact with a descendent of Benhard Lager and Euphemia Welling. I suggest he may be able to help you more. His name is Carl Schoendienst and his e-mail is - carlschoen@aol.com. I have not heard from Carl for a while, so if you have trouble reaching him let me know.

If you have any questions on my info - I will see what I can do to answer them.

Good luck on your research.

The death of Theodore W. Timmermann, Jr. 48, a former resident of Breese who has many relatives in Clinton County, among them a brother, Dr. B. J. Timmermann, of Carlyle, occurred in the St. Joseph's Hospital in Clayton, NM., 20 miles from his home at Perico, TX, Sunday evening at 6:15 o'clock.

Mr. Timmermann fell from a windmill, located back of his store, while oiling the machinery Wednesday evening. Three of his ribs were fractured in the fall and they punctured his lungs. He was taken to the Clayton hospital where he passed away Sunday evening.

He leaves his wife, formerly Miss Carrie Lager, daughter of Ben Lager of Aviston and three daughters, the oldest of the latter being married. His aged father, Theodore W. Timmermann, Sr., 85, libes in Breese, as does a brother Joe Timmermann. Dr. B. J. Timmermann of Carlyle, H.H. Timmermann of Beckemeyer and Herman Timmermann of St. Louis are other surviving brothers. One brother, William Timmermann, formerly of Bartelso, is dead. Three sisters survive. They are Mrs. Alex Geiger of Beckemeyer, Mrs. M.G. Holtgrave of St. Louis, and Mrs. George Schwarz of Breese.

The father, Theodore W. Timmermann and Joe Timmermann of Breese and Dr. and Mrs. B.J. Timmermann of Carlyle left Monday afternoon at two o'clock for Perico to attend the funeral which was held yesterday, Thursday morning. Interment was made at Perico.

The deceased left Breese 15 years ago for the west for his health. He had been a rural route mail carrier out of the Breese post office for several year. He eventually located at Perico where he had been conducting a store and post office. He was also a tractor dealer and was engaged in the real estate business.

Mr. Timmermann leaves a multitude of friends in this and adjoining communities. We are sorry to hear of his tragic accident, and death and extend our sympathy and that of our readers, to the bereaved relatives.

To Whom it may concern:

I recently noticed the information that you supplied to Ancestry re. the descendants of Benedict J. Lager and Elizabeth Weke. (I have Wehe ?) Benedict is the younger brother of my ancestor Joannes Gerardus Lager who was born in November 1796 in Gersten, Emsland, Germany. This is of course in the northwest portion of Germany. I have many descendants of their father Joes Theodore Lager and his wife Anna Gesina Wesselman. I would love to trade information that you have either by GEDCOM or in the form of Word documents. Either way is fine. If you are interested please let me know. Hope to hear from you soon. Thanks again,

Fred,

Looks like I fit into a couple of areas on the tree.

My great-grandfather Edward Schoendienst married for the second time to an Emma Mondt. Emma's first marriage to Mr. Mondt generated a Daughter Veronica Mondt who in turn married Ferdinard Leo Lager (Page 29)

128.075825

Second...

I believe there are some errors on page 30. I don't think the kids listed under Louis Schoendienst & Loretta Lager are correct. Louis Schoendienst had a brother Named Albert (Red) Schoendienst, Red has a daughter named Colleen. Joan is the wife of Thomas Schoendienst. I never heard of Anita Schoendienst. I am curious where this family came from. I could be wrong. As far as my records show Louis & Loretta Never had children.

Third... one of my other relatives Sister Mary Michael lager surely fits somewhere I just haven't had time to find it yet.

I will keep you updated with better and more complete info if you want.

The Union Bakery / Breese Illinois

128.07583 Karl Ludwig Lager

The Union Bakery has been in existence under the present management for the past seven years. It was started in 1906 by W. M. LAGER. When he died in 1908, Mrs. W. M. LAGER took possession and with her children began to make the bakery the largest of its kind in the city. That she has succeeded is due to her untiring efforts and honest business principles. Everything in the bakery goods line is baked and the firm ships goods all over the county; the capacity of the oven is 200 loaves and the capacity is reached daily with this up-to-date concern. In connection with the bakery department a general line of confectionery is carried in stock, as is also cigars and tobacco. The bakery was started in another part of the city when it first sprung into existence and did a very small business. Today it is by far the largest one in Breese. Mr. LAGER was born in Clinton County in 1865 and attended the schools of the county for sever years. He was married in 1891 to Minnie SCHULTE. He died in 1908 leaving his wife with five children. Mrs. LAGER was born in Carlyle in 1870 and has been a resident of the county ever since. The five children are: Arthur, Alphonse, Caroline, Helen, and Pauline, aged 21, 19, 16, 13, and 6 years; respectively.

Subject: the 2 Lager-Albers families

128.0764(?)

Fred,
I have spent the entire day looking at Lagers and I'm back with more questions just as I warned you I would be. First of all I organized my own notes and then went through your WorldConnect database to fit your information, much of it from Paul Grass, with what I had. My special interest at the moment is in the families of the two Lager brothers married to the two Albers sisters. First I'll list what you have in your database and hope I'm noted everything correctly.
LAGER, Theodor Johan married Maria Anna ALBERS Sep 6, 1835 in Lengerich and had the following children:
(1) Johan Bernard born July 1835 (several months before the marriage) married Maria Catharinea WEITER HUELSMAN married possibly Anna M RUMP
(2) Benedict born May 27, 1838, Bschft Lengerich married AnnaWILKENS on Apr 29, 1875, Clinton County, IL
(3-5) children who died as infants
??(6) Theodore J, born Apr 2, 1847, Lengerich, died 1925, St Louis, MO married Anna Maria DUST on Jun 11, 1872, Clinton Co, IL married CatharineWILKE, on Jun 20, 1882, Clinton County, IL married Maria Caroline SCHRAUP on Apr 18, 1883, Clinton Co, IL
(7) Margaretha Caroline born Mar 18, 1848, Bschft Lengerich married Conrad Nettemeyer
(8) Anna Christina born 1853 in Clinton County
married Frank MARKUS
LAGER, Johan Heinrich married Theresa ALBERS on Jun 23, 1840 in Lengerich and had the following children probably all born in Drope:
(1) Johan Benedict born Oct 23, 1842 who Tenfelde says married Caroline Welp
(2) Theodor Herman born Apr 2, 1847, married Anna Maria TIMPE, before 1875 when a child was born in Germany
(3) Anna Caroline born Apr 21, 1850
Passenger list information:
Theodore Johan Lager and Maria Anna emigrated in in 1851, arriving New Orleans Nov 8, 1851 on the ship Olbers: Dietrich LAGER 46 from Hannover to St. Louis with Maria 40, Johannes 17, Bendin 13, Caroline 3.
Johan Heinrich Lager died in Lengerich and his widow Theresa emigrated with the children in 1852, arriving New Orleans Oct 26, 1852 on the ship Olbers: LAGER, Theresa 40, Johannes Benedict 9, Herman Theodore 5, and Anna Caroline age .09.
My first question concerns the 2 sons named Theodor. The passenger list in 1851 for family of Theodor Johan and Maria Anna did not include a son Theodore. If he had been born in 1847 he would have been just 4 years old at the time and should have been traveling with the family, it would seem. Also the Theodors for both families are noted as being born on the same day but in my own notes I have only one on that date, the son of Johan Heinrich and Theresa. Do you think Theodor Johan and Maria Anna really did have a son Theodor J. born on the same day as Theodor Herman, son of Johan Heinrich and Theresa?

Now, from information sent to me by Evelyn, Theo Lager married Anna Maria Dust January 11, 1872 and Theo Lager, a 2nd marriage for him (33 yrs old, blacksmith born in Germany 1849, parents Harry Lager and Theresia Lager) married Catherine Wilke on June 20, 1882 St. Rose. So at least the marriage, to Catherine Wilke, definitely belonged to Herman Theodore, son of Johan Heinrich and Theresa. Was he also the husband of Anna Dust? The fact that the marriage record with Wilke said that it was groom's second marriage makes it seem likely. That is supported by the listing for this couple in the (1881) History of Marion and Clinton Counties partial list of patrons - Lager, H Theodore, blacksmith, St Rose, born in Hannover, in Clinton County in 1852 and wife Anna Dust. And was the same Theodor also the husband of Maria Caroline Schraup/Schlump (marriage Apr 24, 1884)? And then there's the matter of the identity of Theodore, husband of Anna Maria Timpe in Lengerich. If that couple had a child born in Germany in 1875 it doesn't seem likely that the husband would have been Herman Theodore, son of Johan Heinrich and Theresa. That Theodorre definitely emigrated in 1852 and he definitely married in 1882 in Clinton County, and probably also in 1872.

I also wonder about the ID of the Caroline who married Conrad Nettemeyer in 1871. You have identified her as the daughter of Johan Theodore and Anna Maria but she could just as easily have been the daughter of Johan Heinrich and Theresa. Her parents were not named on her marriage record. Recently I came across a marriage record dated Nov 9, 1869 at St Mary of Victories parish in St Louis with groom Johan Bernard Bockerman, 33, son of Johan Heinrich Bockerman and Anna Catharine Wesseling and bride Maria Carolina 22, daughter of Theodore Lager and Maria Anna Albers. So that Caroline could not have been the husband of Conrad Nettemeyer unless Johan Bernard Bockermann died within a few years of the marriage. Two of the children born to Conrad Nettemeyer and Caroline Lager had the name Herman Theodore. Both died. The names of the other children included Anna Theresa and John Henry, making it seem likely that the father of the children was Herman Theodore Lager, son of Johan Hienrich and Theresa.

And finally there's Johan Benedict Lager born in 1842, son of Johan Heinrich and Theresa and there's Johan Bernard born in 1835, son of Theodor Johan and Maria Anna. Tenfelde identifies Johan Benedict born in 1842 as the husband of Caroline Welp in Wabasha, MN but I'm pretty sure that Benedict was born in 1841, son of Bernard Albert Lager and Maria Anna Knollen who emigrated to Wabasha as a family. Fred, you had a note that Johan Bernard born in 1835 may have been married to Anna Rump but information sent to me by Evelyn makes it clear that Anna Rump's husband was the son of Johan Heinrich Lager and Theresa Albers. The parents were named on that marriage record Sep 5, 1882 in Germantown. The record also stated that the groom was age 37 (off by a few years) and born in Lengerich.

Well that's all for now. Let me know what you think about the changes that I've suggested above. Perhaps you have information that I'm not aware of which was behind some of the identifications that I'm questioning.

I look forward to hearing from you,
Barbara
